TALK OF THE TOWN

Returning after a five years' absence, Le Roy, the mysterious, will be seen at the Pavilion Theatre to-day and to-morrow.—adv.

The Spaulding high school basketball team will play the Stowe high school team in the new gymnasium to-night at 8 o'clock.

David Linekin, who is employed in a machine shop in Springfield, is visiting at the home of his parents on Merchant street for a few days.

A daughter weighing eight pounds was born Tuesday, Jan. 11, to Mr. and Mrs. August Friberg of 45 Spaulding street. Mrs. Friberg will be remembered as Miss Gertrude Mattson.

Sadler, Keith avenue, has just received by express, large shipment of ladies', misses' and children's furs and coats for January sale. To be sold at 25 per cent below actual value.—adv.

Old-fashioned molasses candy, 15c per lb. and creamed caramels at 10c per lb., together with unwrapped nut caramels at 23c per lb. are among the Saturday specials offered at the New England Fruit Store, where wholesome home-made candies are the specialty of expert confectioners.—adv.

Clerks at the Union Dry Goods store, with invited guests, to the number of 30 gathered in the store after the closing hour yesterday afternoon and at 8 o'clock sat down to a substantial dinner, prepared by a committee of the ladies. There was a liberal allowance of good cheer and after dinner members of the company contributed to an impromptu program of speechmaking and singing. Manager Kenneth MacRae presided at the exercises, and among those present were several members of the clerical staff at the Union Clothing store. Afterward a "movie" party was organized and most of those who had dined were entertained at the Park theatre.

Barre's auction habitues were well represented at the public sale on the William Walker farm in East Montpelier yesterday, when D. A. Perry of this city conducted a largely attended auction. Farming implements and crops brought unusually high prices for this season. Hay sold at $15.25 the ton at the barn and straw brought 88. Oats sold for 44 cents per bushel and three cows brought satisfactory prices. Mr. Walker recently disposed of his farm to Guy Lamson, who will vacate Dr. L. D. Martin's farm in Williamstown in a few days and move his family to his new purchase. Mr. and Mrs. Walker plan to return in a short time to Barre to resume their residence here.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Big sale Friday and Saturday at the Vaughan Store.

Be sure to see Billie Ritchie at the Bijou to-morrow.—adv.

Weather permitting, next Tuesday evening will be "ladies' night" at the Buzzell rink. Ladies' admission, 10c.

A regular meeting of I. O. O. L., M. U., will be held to-night at 8:30. Installation and initiation. A large attendance is asked for.

Have you ever visited the quarries and stonehills? You may wish to join the storekeeping trip 'at the Baptist church January 17 at 8 o'clock. Rev. George H. Holt, megaphone man.

A two-reel sensational drama, "Her Prey," featuring Herbert Rawlinson. The scenes were taken on Catalina island and the picture includes some wonderful films taken from glass bottomed boats. Cleo Madison in "Alas and Alack." Also a Nestor comedy at the Bijou.—adv.

Friends and business acquaintances of George A. Mosher, who has been making visits to Barre and other Vermont points in the interests of the Boston firm of Albert Winslow & company, dealers in wire rope, manila and sisal cordage, etc., will be interested to learn that the firm has been incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts as the Albert Winslow company, and that Mr. Mosher becomes president of the concern, with Albert Partridge as treasurer. The change became effective on Jan. 3. Besides being president of the Albert Winslow company, Mr. Mosher is to be the manager, with office headquarters in Boston. This will necessitate that he devote considerable time to office work, but the many Barre friends of Mr. Mosher will be pleased to learn that the limitation of his rope trips will not prevent him from making frequent trips to Barre and the Barre granite belt.

Woman's Club Notice.
At 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 18, Mrs. Mary C. Buell of Burlington will address the club. Mrs. Buell will be remembered as the speaker who last year addressed the club on the subject, "In the Garden of Allah." Please notice the change in the hour, 3 p. m. instead of 8 p. m.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1916.

The Weather

Fair and colder to-night. Saturday fair and continued cold; moderate north-west winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Buzzell skating rink open as usual at 7 to-night.

The junior auxiliary of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Mrs. Vaughan Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Monday night, Jan. 17, at 8 o'clock, Rev. George H. Holt will conduct a stereopticon trip to the quarries and stonehills. The views are all from Mr. Holt's own negatives. There will be 60 views of the granite industry and 35 views of Barre and Vermont scenery. Admission; adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

John A. Cross of Cross Bros., Northfield, who was in the city yesterday to attend a meeting of the directors of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association, left last evening for Boston, where he plans to make a business visit of several days.

Ice cutting operations on the mill pond at South Barre were renewed on a large scale with the return of zero weather this morning and from now on until the harvesting is completed a large gang of men will be employed. Old ice cutters say the crop this year is of prime quality and of a kind that will "keep." The ice in the mill pond is from 12 to 14 inches thick.

Mechanics at the Perry Auto, Co.'s garage on Washington street have devised a set of fore snow runners with which they have equipped a Ford touring car with flattering results. In contour the shoes resemble an ordinary sled runner. They are firmly attached to the front wheels of the motor car and when the rear wheels are fitted with chains and the engine is going along at a merry clip, whoever happens to be in the car is bound to have an interesting ride.

Chauffeurs in the employ of the company had the device in use yesterday afternoon and again this morning. They are confident that they have solved in part the problem of all-the-year motor transportation.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Meet me at the anniversary sale at Fitts'.

Buzzell skating rink open as usual at 7 to-night.

Conroy G. Leavens of Cambridge was among the business visitors in the city this morning.

Charles E. Schoff has returned to his home in St. Albans, after passing a few days in the city on business.

Mrs. Julia Blanchard of West street went to Williamstown this morning for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Meyers of Cabot were in the city last evening to attend the Odd Fellow-Rebekah installation.

Rev. J. B. Reardon of Church street returned last night from Bellows Falls, where he has been attending the annual mid-winter conference of Universalist and Unitarian clergymen of Vermont and Quebec.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Arthur Ainsworth of North Montpelier was a business visitor in the city to-day.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Beaulieu of Second street died last night after a brief illness. The child lived only a short time after birth. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

The city street department has finished flooding the floor of the skating rink on the West Second street meadow and if the weather is propitious, enough water will be turned into the basin to-morrow to insure good skating by to-morrow night. Fluctuations in the temperature have interfered seriously with skating rink construction this winter, although with settled cold weather an effort will be made to have all three municipal rinks in shape for recreation purposes.
